Brief information items for practices

Supporting smokers to quit: resources for healthcare professionals

Stoptober is the perfect time to talk to patients about whether they are ready to quit or might think about doing so in the future. This document has been developed to support healthcare professionals in discussing the latest information on stop smoking aids and advising patients who wish to make a quit attempt. It draws on a variety of resources from several professional organisations to provide an overview of available guidance, tools and training. Access the document from Public Health England.
