Partnership Information

Accessing health services you need

The North Oxfordshire Locality Forum, which represents patients at GP surgeries in the north of the county, is holding a free public meeting in Chipping Norton on Tuesday 24 September.

The discussion 'Health and Social Care – Choosing the Right Service' will start at 7pm in Chipping Norton Town Hall. This is to help local people understand how they can best access health and social care services in the town. Everyone is welcome - for more information see here

You are invited to a discussion on managing multi-morbidity

Join a free talk on better care for people living with two or more long term health conditions. The event is being held on Thursday 26 September at Rewley House, 1 Wellington Square, Oxford, OX1 2JA, at 6pm. For more information and tickets visit: eventbrite.co.uk/e/managing-mul but advance booking is not required.

Governors wanted for the local ambulance service

Elections are being held by the South Central Ambulance Service (SCAS) for the role of public governors - there is one post for Oxfordshire. If you would like to stand but want more information about the position you can take part in a SCAS workshop on Monday 30 September in Newbury. Nominations for the seven posts open at the end of this month and close on 21 October, and elections will be held from 13 November to 3 December. To find out more see here

Let's talk loneliness: unlocking the power of communities...

You are invited to take part in an event looking at ways to tackle the loneliness in the community. It will take place on Tuesday 8 October at the Kings Centre, Oxford OX2 0ES (10.30am to 5pm). The day has been organised by Age UK Oxfordshire and partners and will feature talks and workshops. For more information and to confirm your attendance see here
