Talking Health - Oxfordshire CCG

8 November 2019

News update

Have you a view on our commissioning arrangements?

You still have time to tell us your thoughts on the future of NHS commissioning arrangements in Buckinghamshire, Oxfordshire and Berkshire West (BOB).

The integrated care system across BOB covers a number of NHS organisations and local authorities, and you can help shape commissioning in the area.

To read the proposal document for the future of commissioning arrangements in the BOB integrated care system see here

You can share your feedback on these proposals via a short survey see here or visit www.oxfordshireccg.nhs.uk/about-us/buckinghamshire-oxfordshire-and-berkshire-west-integrated-care-system.htm

The survey closes on 1 December 2019.

Pregnant women urged to have the flu jab

Amy Jones, who is seven months pregnant is calling on mums-to-be to have a free NHS flu vaccination.

Amy said: "I'm pleased to have had the vaccine to help protect me and my baby. It doesn't matter at what stage of the pregnancy you are at, even if you discover you are pregnant later on in the flu season – have the vaccination." Read Amy's full story here

You can watch a short video describing why eligible patients need a flu vaccination at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vzQ-tjWb2a0>

Helping boat-dwellers access GP services

Boat-dwellers in Oxford city have been sent information which explains how to register with a GP practice to access health care.

There are an estimated 180 households living permanently on boats within Oxford and some report difficulties registering with a GP surgery because they don't have a fixed address.

Boat-dwellers can also take part in survey to describe their experiences of local health services - to take part and for more information on the campaign see here

Join us at our next Board meeting in Thame

This is being held at the Spread Eagle Hotel in Thame OX9 2BN on Thursday 28 November (9am to 12.45pm). To find out how to submit a question for the meeting see here

Partnership Information

The challenges to staying healthy

Places are still available for the network's inaugural meeting on Monday 18 November at the Kassam Stadium Conference

Centre in Oxford OX4 4XP (10am to 3pm).

The event will discuss 'What are the challenges to staying healthy for your community?' To find out more about the network and to register your organisation's attendance see here

Join council bosses over a cup of coffee

You can meet Oxfordshire County Council's education and social care leaders at a coffee morning on Friday 15 November 2019. This is being held at the Kings Centre, Oxford, OX2 0ES (9.30am to 12 noon).

They want to meet parents and carers and listen to any concerns you may have about these services, and your ideas for working better together. To reserve your place see here

Finding GP nursing roles just got easier

A new NHS website will make it easier for people to search and apply for general practice nursing roles. Visit gpnursing.jobs.nhs.uk to find your ideal nursing job, and help strengthen primary care. The site also includes information about GP nursing training and careers.

Can you help transform the NHS?

The NHS Youth Forum wants young people aged 16 to 25 to help shape the future of health services.

The forum is recruiting over two dozen youngsters to join a national project to give them a voice on developing the NHS.

For more information and to apply for a role see here - the closing date for applications is Tuesday 12 November (9am).
