

Knee MRI referral guidelines for adults

*Suspected: fracture, ligament damage with unstable knee, acute locking with pain and reduced range of movement

If an MRI knee for a patient >55 is indicated or if there is a good clinical indication for imaging/referral which does not fall neatly into the pathway, referral can still be made to the MSK hub, clearly stating the indications.

Guidelines reviewed Aug 2014 by:

Dr Kiren Collison, GP

Dr Robert Russ, GP

Dr Eugene McNally, Consultant Radiologist