Guidelines Summary: Investigating Mildly Abnormal Liver Tests

- mildly elevated ALT: <4x ULN; moderate >4x <10x ULN; severe >10xULN. If moderate or severe, refer directly to Hepatology (urgent if severe)
- Chronic Liver Disease Screen consists of: Hep B sAg, Hep C ab, ANA, Liver autoantibodies, Immunoglobulins, Ferritin, HbA1c
- Risk stratification test requested on ICE (search “Fib-4” OR “ELF” OR “NAFL”)
- If there are other queries, please use the new Hepatology email advice line: orh-tr.oxon.hepatologyadvice@nhs.net