

Thames Valley Suicide Prevention Conference

Pentahotel, Oxford Rd, Reading RG1 7RH
10th October 2019 10am– 4pm

The Thames Valley Suicide Prevention and Intervention Network (SPIN), hosted by the Thames Valley Strategic Clinical Networks (SCN), invites you to attend this Suicide Prevention conference to mark World Mental Health Day on 10 October 2019.

This full day conference will be an opportunity to network with colleagues from a wide range of professions, each with a role in suicide prevention, support, reporting and bereavement services.

A comprehensive agenda includes speakers from NHS services and providers as well as media and third sector, who will present practical information and tools, and showcase local activity.

Our chair for the day will be Professor Keith Hawton, Centre for Suicide Research.

Key topics covered in the programme will include:

- media and reporting
- coroners, inquests, media and bereavement support
- debt and council tax arrears
- technology
- loneliness support, via third sector

The day will have wide appeal particularly for colleagues across NHSE, CCGs and providers, police and ambulance services, media/reporters, coroners, university liaison, bereavement support, rail services, DWP, Citizens Advice and debt advisory agencies, third sector including homelessness and housing groups and schools.
